

Teaching Assistant Apprenticeship

If you enjoy working with groups of children under the supervision of the teacher and supporting learning activities then a Teaching Assistant could be the perfect job for you

As a Teaching Assistant you will support the class teacher with teaching and learning under his/her direction. To become a Teaching Assistant Apprentice, you will need to have the ability to work as part of a team, communicate effectively, and have an understanding of child development and learning. You will need the ability to build good relationships with children, teachers, parents and carers with flexibility and creativity. Minimum of 12 months and one day to complete.

What levels are available to study?

Level 2 intermediate apprenticeship
Level 3 advanced apprenticeship

Gain nationally recognised qualifications including:

Level 2 certificate Supporting Teaching and Learning in schools
Level 3 diploma Specialist Support for Teaching and Learning in Schools.
Functional Skills in Maths
Functional Skills in English
Functional Skills in ICT

Possible Job Roles

Teaching Assistant
Classroom Assistant
Learning Support