

Photography: How to take better pictures with your DSLR camera

APH24

Andrew Wilson

Saturday

10:00 - 4:30

10-Oct-20 - 10-Oct-20

1 Session

OEP

£32.50 (Concessions: £16.25)

Who is it for?

Those who can already use the controls on their DSLR/Bridge camera and wish to improve their photography

What will I learn?

You will learn about and understand the ingredients that lift pictures from 'the ordinary', as well as assessing the opportunities and constraints offered by the subject matter and using them to improve your photography.

Learning will be via practical, hands-on use of your camera, as well as seeing and understanding simple explanations and examples.

Course outcomes:

You'll learn how to improve your pictures by gaining a practical understanding of:

- Light & tonal range
- Composition
- Depth of field
- Viewpoint and narrative

You'll also learn how to take pictures in a more confident and fluent way in a variety of situations, and avoid technical errors to achieve a higher success rate.

If you need more information or advice, please call us on 01572 758122 or email adultlearning@rutland.gov.uk

What should I bring?

- Note pad & pen/pencil
- Fully-charged DSLR or bridge camera with SD card in
- Camera instruction manual, if possible

What could I do after this? Who delivers it?

This course is delivered by Andrew Wilson, Fellow of the Royal Photographic Society and a RPS Distinctions assessor and advisor with many years' experience.

After the course, you could continue to practice in your own environment or sign up for RALSS' Photography: Further Skills course.
